MAD Ticket Hotline

The Best Seats in the House are YOURS!

The MAD Trust is privileged to have a relationship with many West End Theatres where they will grant us "house seats", if available, for shows which are otherwise sold out. House seats are usually best seats by definition, as they are held back in case they are needed by the producers or the theatre management and are most often placed in the stalls or sometimes in the dress circle. We do not have a choice of seat position for house seats – this is decided by the individual theatre managements & show producers.

If you simply want us to take care of booking seats for a show in the West End or if you want tickets for a sold-out show and you are willing to pay extra, we can do that for you, just email or call us.

For the ticket booking service we book the best seats we can get for you (in the seating level of your choice) and for a sold-out show we request house seat(s) for you (not normally available to the public).

For either service you would pay the full value of tickets directly to the theatre. You would then also donate the face value of your tickets to us.

You benefit from our service, the theatre benefits by selling seats and we benefit from your donation helping us to 'make a difference' by supporting our charitable work.

If you would like to request tickets, please call the office on +44 (0)20 7231 9719 or email boxoffice@madtrust.org.uk
